OUTDOOR COATS:

Outdoor coats/jackets/scarves/gloves must not be worn inside the school buildings or in classrooms. Outdoor coats must be either navy or black and suitable for school. Designer coats or fashion jackets to include hoodies are not permitted. Students must not wear hats or hoods on the school site. Scarves and gloves must be plain all navy or black. The only exception being the school scarf which has the House colours.

SHOES:

Black shoes appropriate for school. Shoes must be smart and trainers/pumps are not allowed. Shoes which look like trainers/pumps in design or material are not acceptable. Boots, high heeled, open toed or slip on shoes are not considered suitable for all day wear and should not be worn as school shoes.

MAKE UP:

Discreet make-up may be worn by Year 11 and Year 10. The school reserves the right to ask students to remove excessive make-up. Nail varnish is not allowed.

JEWELLERY:

One small pair of plain gold or silver stud earrings may be worn in the lower lobe of each ear. One watch may be worn. No rings or bracelets are allowed. No visible body piercings including tongue studs.

If students are temporarily out of uniform they need a dated note of explanation from parents. Students who persistently arrive in school in incorrect uniform will be sent home to change. All parents are urged to ensure that uniform is correctly labelled in order to allow a prompt return to its owner.

Uniform can be purchased or ordered online from the main school suppliers:
