SECTION 1: SCHOOL ARRANGEMENTS

1.1: Definition of Special Educational Needs

The Code of Practice (2014) states:

'A child has special educational needs if he or she has learning difficulties that call for special educational provision to be made.'

A child has learning difficulties if he or she:

- a. Has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of children of the same age
- b. Has a disability which prevents or hinders the child from making use of educational facilities of a kind provided for children of the same age in mainstream schools

Special education provision means:

For a child over two, educational provision which is additional to, or different from, the educational provision made generally for children of the same age by maintained schools.

Children must not be regarded as having learning difficulties solely because their language, or form of the home language, is different from that in which they are taught.

See also Section 312, Education Act 1996

A person has a disability if he has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial long term adverse effect on his ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

Equality Act 2010

Marple Hall School will have due regard for the Special Needs Code of Practice and associated legislation when carrying out our duties towards all students with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, and ensure that parents are notified when additional provision is being made for their child.

Marple Hall School values the abilities and achievements of all its students, and is committed to providing for each student the best possible experience of and environment for learning. Our SEND policy reinforces the need for teaching that is fully inclusive. The Governing Body will ensure that appropriate provision will be made for all students with SEND.

1.2 Objectives of the School's SEND Policy:

To enable all students who have any Special Educational Need or Disability to reach their full potential, to be included fully in the school community and to make a successful transition to adulthood.

- (i) To ensure that all students have access to a broad and balanced curriculum.
- (ii) To ensure the identification of all students requiring SEND provision as early as possible in their school career.
- (iii) To provide a differentiated curriculum appropriate to the individual's needs and ability.
- (iv) To ensure that SEND students take as full a part as possible in all school activities.
- (v) To communicate with parents about all aspects of the provision made for their children and to continue to develop this home-school partnership.
- (vi) To increase the confidence of students with SEND, involving them in decisions affecting their future provision.

- (vii) To deploy the resources of the school and Learning Support Department in as effective a way as possible.
- (viii) To work in partnership with a range of agencies to ensure the highest quality provision.
- (ix) To use the SEND Code of Practice as a framework for identification of and provision for students with special educational needs and disabilities.

We recognise that many students may require additional support in a variety of forms at some time during their school life. In implementing this policy, we believe students will be helped to overcome their difficulties and make good progress, both socially and academically.

Whilst many factors contribute to the range of difficulties experienced by some children, we believe that much can be done to overcome them when parents, teachers and students work together. This partnership model extends to the involvement of the LA's services and external providers.

1.3 Roles and Responsibilities

It is recognised at Marple Hall that all teachers are teachers of students with SEND. Teaching these students is a whole school responsibility. The first phase of supporting students with SEND. is Quality First Teaching.

Central to the work of staff with every class across each subject is the continuous cycle of planning, teaching, assessment and evaluation that takes account of the wide range of abilities, aptitudes and interests of the students. The majority of students will learn and progress within these arrangements.

At Marple Hall the oversight of the SEND provision is managed on a daily basis by the Learning Support Co-ordinator (SENDCO). This is monitored and supported by the Deputy Headteacher and a named Governor.

A team of staff including the SENDCO, deputy SENDCO two teachers, 3 full time Higher Level Teaching Assistants and 18+ Learning Support Assistants carry out the work of the department.

The Governing Body's responsibilities to students with SEND include:

- (i) Ensuring that provision of a high standard is made for SEND students
- (ii) Ensuring students with medical conditions are effectively supported
- (iii) Ensuring that SEND students are fully involved in school activities
- (iv) Having regard to the Code of Practice when carrying out these responsibilities
- (v) Being fully involved in developing, monitoring and subsequently reviewing the SEND policy

The School's responsibilities include:

- (i) The day-to-day management of all aspects of the school including the SEND provision
- (ii) Keeping the Governing Body well-informed about SEND within the school
- (iii) Maintaining close working relationship between the SENDCO and SLT Link.
- (iv) Ensuring flexible strategies for working with parents, and that these strategies encourage involvement in their child's education

The SENDCO with the support of the deputy SENDCO will:

- i. oversee the day-to-day operation of the school's SEND policy
- ii. co-ordinate provision for children with SEND
- iii. liaise with the relevant Designated Teacher where a looked after student has SEND
- iv. advise on the graduated approach to providing SEND support
- v. advise on the deployment of the school's delegated budget and other resources to meet students' needs effectively
- vi. liaise with parents of students with SEND

- x. work with the Headteacher and school governors to ensure that the school meets its responsibilities under the Equality Act (2010) with regard to reasonable adjustments and access arrangements
- xi. ensure that the school keeps the records of all students with SEND up to date

The SENDCO will organise and facilitate regular team meetings to discuss individual students, assess the success of current support and plan responses to changing needs and priorities.

All requests for support for individuals or classes should be put in writing and brought to the attention of the SENDCO.

1.4 Admission Arrangements

The Governing Body believes that the admissions criteria should not discriminate against students with SEND and has due regard for the practice advocated in the Code of Practice, in that: 'Admissions authorities must consider applications from parents of children who have SEND but do not have an EHC plan on the basis of the school's published admissions criteria as part of normal admissions procedures' and 'Must not refuse to admit a child who has SEND but does not have an EHC plan because they do not feel able to cater for those needs.' (CoP 1:27)

Marple Hall School strives to be a fully inclusive school. We acknowledge the range of issues to be taken account of, in the process of development. All students are welcome, including those with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, in accordance with the LA Admissions Policy. According to the Education Act 1996 (Section 316), if a parent wishes to have their child with an EHC Plan educated in the mainstream, the LA must provide a place unless this is incompatible with the efficient use of resources and education of other children, and there are no reasonable steps that can be taken to prevent the incompatibility.

What the school offers can be found on our SEND Information Report on the Website and the Local Authority's support can be found under local offer on their website.

1.5 Any Special Needs Specialism and Special Units

All teachers at the school have a responsibility for teaching those students who have Special Educational Needs and Disabilities. There is a body of experience within the school for providing for students with literacy and numeracy difficulties as well as students with speech, language and communication difficulties, physical, sensory and medical difficulties and social, emotional and mental health difficulties. There is an increased focus on identifying and addressing the training needs of staff to improve the quality of support we are able to offer to any student who presents with additional needs.

1.6 Special Facilities

The Learning Support department has a suite of dedicated rooms including, office facilities, two transition classrooms and room to undertake additional 1-2-1/small group support work.

The school is accessible by wheelchair and facilities include a disabled toilet and lift access in Isherwood.

SECTION 2: IDENTIFICATION, ASSESSMENT AND PROVISION

Marple Hall School receives funding for students with SEND in these main ways:

- (ii) The element 2 SEND budget (based on the LA formula, and generated in part by numbers on the SEND Register) covers the additional support required
- (iii) The element 3 specific funds allocated to students with EHC plans

The Governing Body ensures that resources are allocated to support appropriate provision for all students requiring it, and in meeting the objectives set out in this policy.

Marple Hall School follows LA guidance to ensure that all students' needs are appropriately met.

The SENDCO will advise the SLT on the adequacy of resources and the Headteacher will report to the Governing Body.

2.2: Identification, Assessment and Review

2.2.1 Categories of SEND

The Code does not assume that there are hard and fast categories of special educational need or disability, but recognises that student's needs and requirements fall into four broad areas.

- Cognition and Learning
- Communication and Interaction
- Social, Emotional and Mental health
- Sensory and/or Physical

The SENDCO is formally responsible for identifying children with special educational needs, assessing their needs and progress and bringing information to the attention of other staff.

All members of the school community have a responsibility to bring to the attention of the SENDCO any student whose needs are not being met.

2.2.2 Early Identification

Early identification of students with SEND is a priority and the sources of information for identifying a child's special educational needs or disability include:

‘Inclusive schools enable all their students to gain maximum advantage from all the opportunities which education has to offer’

These students will be reintegrated back into larger teaching groups their skills develop during the year.

(iv) Faculties have a responsibility to ensure every student has access to a broad and balanced differentiated curriculum. Every faculty should reflect the diverse nature and need of the school’s population. All schemes and individual plans should include opportunities for differentiation so that all students can recognise appropriate learning outcomes and steps to progress.

All faculties have a responsibility to ensure there is a range of resources appropriate for students with SEND.
